THE DRESS CODE

. . . at the Hondo schools is being besieged by a few of the students and some of the parents if Tuesday night's ruckus at the board meeting can be used as a guide.

I know I am a little old fashioned, but for the life of me, I can't see what all the fuss is about. Now, if every boy in the world wore his hair long, then I think it would be a disgrace to make the boys in Hondo High School [and McDowell] cut theirs short.

But really, boys, they don't. In fact, the trend, or fad, or whatever you call it, is going in the other direction. Not all the way, mind you, but certainly back to a more reasonable length. And nowhere I go do I see any boys or young men ostracized because their hair doesn't hang down in their eyes or to the shoulder blades.

I have read the local school code [and I've heard about it from my two students] and I personally feel it to be very fair. All it is trying to accomplish is to make the boys and girls in Hondo have a neat and well-groomed appearance and not look like tramps.

But I will go one step farther and say: If you have a dress code, it should be enforced right across the board, fair and square. If this isn't being done in our school, then the policy should change immediately. If it is being done, then there is nothing else to say.

Since I am writing this early Monday morning, I am not certain if the threatened walkout occurred, but if it did, it is a shame. The dress code and protests of a few malcontents certainly are not sufficient grounds for disruption of school. If this did occur, I am not sure what the administration and board will do, but certainly they cannot let it go unnoticed.

Certainly, there are problems that arise when people go to school. There always have been and there always will be. But they can be worked out in a reasonable, sensible manner.

As I said before, I must be old fashioned. I feel that too many parents allow their children to run the home and when these same youngsters want to dictate school policy these parents are ready to back them up with vocal protests.

If my children have problems with any specific teacher, I will go to that teacher on a person to person basis. In fact, I have on several occasions since I have lived in Hondo, and I feel that the meetings have been satisfactory.

It certainly is my wish that all problems can be worked out with the least amount of disruption at our schools. For as everyone should realize, such disruptions only harm the students.

DON RAINS

. . . of San Marcos came by Monday to say he is a candidate for the 45th Legislative District seat being vacated by our own Rep. John H. Poerner who is seeking to be our next Congressman from District 21.

I kinda liked the young man the first I saw him and Monday I found one reason this could have been possible. His folks just happen to be from my small neck of the woods back in Sabine County, East Texas. That's around my old stomping grounds around Hemphill, Bronson and Pineland.

Now, I don't want to hamper Don's chances of winning when I say this, but for several reasons I am going to be pulling for him to take the seat up in Austin. His philosophy jives pretty close to that of the people of this district and I personally feel he will make a hard working representative for the entire district.

I'm sure Don will be getting around to meet all the people of the county and give them an opportunity to see him, hear him and gain an impression on which to base their votes come May 4.

Decker for reelection

County Judge Jerome Decker, who is completing his first term of office, is seeking re-election to that position in this year's elections.

He has filed his intentions with County Democratic Chairman Frank Crawford and now is taking this means of announcing his plans to the Medina County public.

"I have enjoyed the challenges we have faced during the first three years I have been in this office," Decker said in making the announcement. "And I feel that the county has made strides in several areas. One main accomplishment I hope we have achieved is a better feeling of unity throughout the county."

Judge Decker has spearheaded the county's efforts to cooperate and be an integral part of the Alamo Area Council of Governments and his efforts have aided the county in obtaining several projects. A main project was the Regional Park in Castroville and another has been an upgrading of equipment and procedures used by the Medina County Sheriff's office.

One of the main projects accomplished in the Devine area during Decker's administration has been the City-County building built in 1972.

He has coordinated the Emergency Ambulance Service which was made necessary by the combination of federal requirements and withdrawal of private services. And he has taken a strong interest in roads and highways serving County residents.

"Medina County will be faced with many problems during the next four years and I would like to help with their solutions," Judge Decker said. "That is why I am seeking re-election and soliciting the vote and support of Medina County residents."

sale of the animals in the Stock Show Auction, each person will be charged a 1 1/2% commission on the sale of his animal. This will make it possible for the exhibitor to pick up his check from the sale of his animal on Tuesday afternoon following the sale.

The Hondo Livestock Stock Auction provides much help to the Medina Junior Stock Show each year, the entire county is indebted to this firm for the support they give the show each year. The companies who place a floor price on all entries of livestock submit their bids to the Hondo Livestock Auction. But the use of floor prices the local merchants and supporters can pay higher prices for the animals that move through the sale.

The Medina County Junior Stock Show appreciates the support given by all interested people of the county each year. Bill Moos, Hondo Young Young Farmer member, is serving as president of the Medina County Junior Stock Show this year.

MEAT FOR FILING . . . Proceeds from the sale of these two calves will be used by State Rep. John H. Poerner [right], shown here with Lloyd Hardt of the Hondo Livestock Auction Company, to pay his filing fee for the 21st U. S. Congressional race.

Poerner to post filing fee

State Rep. John H. Poerner will post a $500 filing fee with the State Democratic Executive Committee in Austin today, Thursday, January 31, to officially confirm his entry into the 21st U. S. Congressional race.

Poerner said he will pay the filing fee with proceeds from the sale of two calves, raised on his ranch, to emphasize his agricultural background and the need for a Congressman who understands the farming and ranching problems of the district.

"The Bexar County portion of the district, as well as the other 31 counties, is dependent on agriculture, which makes it imperative that citizens have a Congressman familiar with the urban and rural problems of the district," Poerner said.

The legislator's two calves, which were sold at the Hondo Livestock Auction Company here, weighed a total of 1,010 pounds and brought a price of $54.25 per hundred, more than enough to cover the required filing fee.

School Board hears Chicano group

An overflow crowd filled the Audio-visual room at Hondo High School Tuesday night for the special called meeting of the Hondo School Board.

The meeting was called at the request of a group of parents and students to consider "treatment of Chicano students, regulations on hair length, and other important issues," but the bulk of the night's discussion centered around a list of ten demands which were handed to the board.

San Antonio attorney John Alaniz was on hand to speak for the group.

The demands included the following:

That the Board adopt a policy to let students speak Spanish at will, except in the conduct of class;

That the Board explain how the dress code in effect at Hondo was arrived at, who made it, and how widely it has been distributed;

That bilingual education be instituted in Hondo schools, along with classes in Mexican culture;

That the schools actively recruit Chicano teachers for the lower grades, in an Outreach program;

That the Board explain the process of assigning students to vocational or mental retardation classes, including the standards followed;

That harassment of Chicano students by teachers be investigated;

That police be stopped from coming to school to arrest students;

That elementary students not be forced to eat all their food, against their will;

That baseball bats not be used to discipline students; and

That adults in the Hondo school system not use abusive language against students.

In discussing the demands, Superintendent Flory offered the following information concerning bilingual education:

The State of Texas requires by law that bilingual education be installed in Grade 1 in 1974, adding an additional grade per year for three more years. It can be extended optionally for up to six years. To install it, twenty students in a grade must be unable to speak English.

Regarding recruitment of Chicano or bilingual teachers for Hondo, Flory stated that Hondo school officials have visited Texas A&I, Southwest Texas State, Sam Houston, Sul Ross, Pan American, and all San Antonio universities trying to hire teachers fluent in both English and Spanish.

A complaint involving the presence of police officers on campus had been brought up early in the meeting, with the story of a young Hondo Mexican-American student who had been arrested during school hours for vandalism which he had allegedly committed the previous evening, off school property. McDowell principal Ed Hilsher stated that County Judge Jerome Decker told him that the youth's father had given permission for the arrest. The father, present Tuesday night, said he was informed of the arrest, but not asked for permission to arrest the youth.

The Board had considered that case at an earlier meeting, stated Board President Elmer Joe Leinweber, and decided that no policeman should be allowed to arrest a student during school hours except under very serious, unusual circumstances.

Asked if that policy was in the official Board minutes, Leinweber said it may not be, but that is the directive under which the school is presently administered.

Alaniz then formally requested that the Board adopt such a rule if it hasn't already done so.

Regarding the hair-length and dress codes at Hondo, ex-student Roy Torres testified that he had quit school in the eleventh grade rather than follow the hair rule. "I was almost finished with school, and I was a B average student, but this place just didn't make it. This school is behind the times," Torres had attended schools in California prior to moving back to Hondo.

Another ex-student, Lupe Barrientes, said he had lived through the hair rules all right, and that students would get ample chance to grow their hair as long as they wish after graduation.

Ex-student Jane Lopez questioned the relation of hair length to quality of education, and other voices said students should not have to drop out due to long hair.

Barrientes proposed that Hondo students in each school vote their own hair or dress codes, and follow them.

Alaniz then stated that courts have ruled both ways on hair length standards, but that they can be the domain of the school board if the board wishes to set them.

"But," said Alaniz, "in a community like Hondo with different economic groups, you're treading on thin legal ice regarding dress codes."

"You, as a political entity, can keep short hair until you change the rule or are voted out. But dress codes are another animal." Some parents, said Alaniz, may not be able to afford clothes that fit within the code.

The present dress and hair code states "Boys will be permitted to wear the polo or golf-type shirt outside the pants at the waistline if the shirt is designed to be worn in this way. Boys hair will be expected to be well groomed. It will not extend below the eyebrows in front and will not cover the ears nor extend below the collar."

Girls will be permitted to wear matched pantsuits with the top to be of hip length. Blue jeans or slacks will not be permitted for girls. Unusually short skirts will also not be permitted.

"While attending classes or representing the school on official trips, girls are expected to dress like girls and boys like boys."

Additionally, President Leinweber said, the code is leniently enforced, and no student has been sent home without prior warning.

Complaints concerning specific instances of Hondo teachers harassing

Chicano students were not heard at the meeting.

That subject was to be at the top of the list for the parent group, but Superintendent Flory read a rule requiring that any complaints against a specific teacher or employee be presented in writing, and that a copy be sent to the accused person so that he might be present to defend himself.

"That is a good rule," Alaniz said. "As a lawyer, I can appreciate the idea of the accused being present to defend himself."

Later, Alaniz said the specific complaints about teachers or employees will be submitted in writing, in accordance with the Board rule.

"I just took these people's case two weeks ago. They weren't apprised of this rule, and I was not apprised either, but it is a good rule."

Leinweber said parents and students shouldn't have to wait so long to "let these things build up. They should take the problem up with the teacher." If they can't work it out then, Leinweber said, they should go to the Principal, then the Superintendent, then if necessary they can write a letter to him.

Pressed for a written guarantee that the demands will be met, Leinweber answered with a verbal guarantee that they will be discussed.

Although he did not set a specific date for consideration of the complaints and demands of the group, Leinweber later indicated that they will probably be discussed at the next regular meeting, February 12.

NEW STATE PARK . . . will be on site of Landmark Inn in Castroville.

Landmark Inn new park group

The office of Representative John Poerner telephoned the Anvil Herald Tuesday afternoon with the following announcement:

The Parks and Wildlife Department has authorized me to announce the acquisition of the historical Landmark Inn in Castroville. The five acre tract of land, adjoining the beautiful Medina River, contains the Landmark Inn, two residences, a grist mill and an old bathhouse.

Miss Ruth Lawler donated the property to the State of Texas and reserved a life estate in one of the residences.

The Parks and Wildlife Department plans to restore and place in operation the old grist mill and the bathhouse. It is expected to be open to the public on a daily basis by 1975.

Funds for renovation of this historic site are derived from the one-half cent tax from each package of cigarettes, and this was the identical source of funding for the Lost Maple Park west of Bandera.

"An Alsatian myself," Representative Poerner said, "I am particularly proud to announce the acquisition of this historic site that will perpetually recognize the establishment of the Alsatian colony's rightful place in the history of Texas."

will be a great help in the commissioners planning of road work.

I worked at Kelly Field for three years, during the war, then to farming and ranching until the present time.

I served four years as a public school trustee, five years as a soil conservation supervisor, and now the Community Committeeman for A.S.C.S.

I feel this experience would qualify me for the job which I seek. I believe this experience would be helpful in that a lot of County business is conducted by the commissioners court. I would be firm on the things I stand for, yet have the right temperament to get along and work with our Commissioners Court to the best interest of Precinct 4. I think I can be capable of planning and figuring any road project that might come before me.

I am a property owner and taxpayer and would be interested in the problems of all taxpayers, yet do all possible to developing Precinct 4. If elected I would give much time and study to planning our road projects, with the aim in mind of saving our tax dollars wherever possible. I would conduct my office in a Christian way.

I gladly ask anyone who hasn't known me personally to investigate my record as to honesty, management and fairness. I urge everyone to get a (voter registration certificate) which is free . . . and to vote in all elections for the candidate of your choice. I hope to see you personally.

A quickening of pace will be evident this week in the progress of the Texas Constitutional Convention as delegates reached the January 30th deadline to submit proposals to be included in the proposed document.

This means that committees, and especially the Education Committee of which I am a member, have taken public testimony and are now in the process of digesting this input to see how it might be utilized in the new document.

All of this brings the Convention nearer to the time when delegates will take the floor to debate article by article the proposals and in time how them into shape as a viable Constitution.

Proposals for debate will be many and varied. They will represent a wide range of thinking on every subject, and purpose of debate will be to weld them all together in a manner that will benefit all Texans.

Among these proposals are some I strongly approve. I agree wholeheartedly that Texas should retain the right to work law. This to me is an inalienable right that should not be taken from the citizens of this state.

I support the idea that the time has come to change the law on garnishment of wages for personal services so that it speaks directly to the problem of child support. The law should make mandatory a provision that will provide assistance for the many abused children of our state.

The proposal, to which I have signed my name, addresses itself to this cause. In part, it says: "The Legislature may provide for garnishment not to exceed 25% of current wages for personal services for payment of court-ordered child support."

As I said above, there will be many other proposals for the Convention to study and I feel certain that they all will receive close scrutiny when Convention delegates begin debating them in body. And I hasten to add, they all can, and should, be examined minutely by the public.

That is still possible. We have not closed out the public's input to this vitally important Convention. Your opinions are vital. You can still state them by calling or writing me in Austin, or by calling the Convention at the toll free number 1-800-292-9600.

School Board hears Chicano group

An overflow crowd filled the Audio-visual room at Hondo High School Tuesday night for the special called meeting of the Hondo School Board.

The meeting was called at the request of a group of parents and students to consider "treatment of Chicano students, regulations on hair length, and other important issues," but the bulk of the night's discussion centered around a list of ten demands which were handed to the board.

San Antonio attorney John Alaniz was on hand to speak for the group.

The demands included the following:

That the Board adopt a policy to let students speak Spanish at will, except in the conduct of class;

That the Board explain how the dress code in effect at Hondo was arrived at, who made it, and how widely it has been distributed;

That bilingual education be instituted in Hondo schools, along with classes in Mexican culture;

That the schools actively recruit Chicano teachers for the lower grades, in an Outreach program;

That the Board explain the process of assigning students to vocational or mental retardation classes, including the standards followed;

That harassment of Chicano students by teachers be investigated;

That police be stopped from coming to school to arrest students;

That elementary students not be forced to eat all their food, against their will;

That baseball bats not be used to discipline students; and

That adults in the Hondo school system not use abusive language against students.

In discussing the demands, Superintendent Flory offered the following information concerning bilingual education:

The State of Texas requires by law that bilingual education be installed in Grade 1 in 1974, adding an additional grade per year for three more years. It can be extended optionally for up to six years. To install it, twenty students in a grade must be unable to speak English.

Regarding recruitment of Chicano or bilingual teachers for Hondo, Flory stated that Hondo school officials have visited Texas A&I, Southwest Texas State, Sam Houston, Sul Ross, Pan American, and all San Antonio universities trying to hire teachers fluent in both English and Spanish.

A complaint involving the presence of police officers on campus had been brought up early in the meeting, with the story of a young Hondo Mexican-American student who had been arrested during school hours for vandalism which he had allegedly committed the previous evening, off school property. McDowell principal Ed Hilsher stated that County Judge Jerome Decker told him that the youth's father had given permission for the arrest. The father, present Tuesday night, said he was informed of the arrest, but not asked for permission to arrest the youth.

The Board had considered that case at an earlier meeting, stated Board President Elmer Joe Leinweber, and decided that no policeman should be allowed to arrest a student during school hours except under very serious, unusual circumstances.

Medina rains finally come

It was almost too late, but it finally came. Rain, so abundant a commodity throughout 1973, returned to Medina County last Wednesday after a layoff of two months.

Totals as high as 2.55 inches were logged, with the County-wide average falling somewhere near 1.70 inches.

As predicted in an early-1974 Taylor-Chapman rain forecast, the rain started within two minutes of a 5:02 a.m. moon-change Wednesday morning. Over the following four days the general rain revived the rangelands, put new green into the small grains crop, and lessened the threat of grass fires which have struck repeatedly this month.

A quick check on possible economic impact of the shower with County Agent Glenn Bragg gained this information:

"This rain isn't enough to make the small-grains crop for this year by itself, but it probably saved between $2-3 million."

"If the rain keeps up, we can probably harvest 90 to 95 percent of the planted crop. Of course, if it doesn't rain, we could still lose it all, too."

Bragg explained that about 30,000 acres of small grains had been planted in the County this year. Between five and ten percent had already been plowed up, due to the dry conditions.

The Taylor-Chapman run-down looks for possible rain again this weekend. Moon-change, we are informed, will occur again Thursday morning at 1:39 a.m.

The following rainfall reports were logged:

Woodward Ranch, 1.20 inches; Jack Ulbrich Jr., 1.60; M. Batot, 1.80; Kathleen Finger, 1.95; Gus Rothe, 2 in.; Frank Rothe, 1.75; George Koch, 1.50; H. Vogel, 1.50; Clayton Woodls, 1.90; T. ## Art League to meet

Hondo Art League will hold its monthly meeting a week earlier, on Monday, February 4, instead of its regular second-Monday meeting date.

Plans for workshops for the new year will be discussed at the meeting, along with a program by Eugen Reinartz on the life of Charles Russell. Russell was a noted Western artist.

LOCAL JUDGES AT-TEND SEMINAR -- Four justices of the peace from Bexar and Medina Counties were among the 51 judges who participated in a regional 20-hour in-service training school held in San Antonio Jan. 15-18. The local judges participating were, left to right, Judge John V. Parma of Precinct 8, Place 1, La

Coste; Judge Daniel Ruempel of Precinct 3, Castroville; Judge Harold Herring of Precinct 1, Hondo and Judge Lloyd Kirkpatrick of Precinct 5, San Antonio.

Final escapee captured

Alfonso Walker, 25, the last of five prisoners who escaped from the Medina County Jail last August 31, has been recaptured in Atlanta, Georgia.

Medina County Sheriff Charles J. Hitzfelder travelled to Atlanta this week to return Walker to the Medina County Jail.

An Atlanta Federal Circuit Court Judge set bond for Walker at $500,000.

Walker, a San Antonio man, was thought by Sheriff Hitzfelder to be in New Orleans and Washington, D. C., before he was arrested by F.B.I. agents in Atlanta Thursday night, January 24.

Walker was captured in an Atlanta apartment, and offered no resistance when he was arrested. F.B.I. agent Leo Conroy of Atlanta said Walker had shaved his beard and cut his hair in an attempt to change his appearance.

Walker was being held in the

Medina County Jail on charges of Robbery by Assault and Attempted Murder, in connection with the holdup of a Castroville liquor store and the shooting of Castroville City Marshall Frank Haynes.

He was first captured after a wild chase and shootout near Lackland Air Force Base in San Antonio. Walker's brother and a baby were killed in the exchange of gunfire.

Alamo Area RC&D application accepted

The Alamo Area Resource Conservation and Development application has been accepted by the Governor's Office, the State office of the Soil Conservation Service and the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The Alamo Area RC&D Project will include ten counties: Atascosa, Bander, Bexar, Comal, Frio, Guadalupe, Kendall, Kerr, Medina and Wilson Counties. The Soil Conservation Service will provide the leadership and assist the sponsors in developing the RC&D program plan. They will encourage and assist the sponsors in securing the help of individuals and units of local government in developing the plan. The SCS will encourage the sponsors to make full use of local resources, committees, organizations and groups in developing the program.

Since the SCS has been in the RC&D business for many years, State and Federal agencies are aware that they will be called upon for help in preparing the application and for planning assistance. In most cases they will cooperate in this undertaking, although there will be some cases where a particular agency may not have an interest in a proposed project area. Agencies, especially those who helped in preparing the plan, will be given an opportunity to review the final draft before it is printed.

Multiple sponsorship is very desirable and usually necessary to represent the various interests in resource development. It is expected that in every case the Soil and Water Conservation Districts in the project area will be sponsors of the application. Other sponsors could be organizations such as water districts, other special districts, towns, cities, counties, and other state and local agencies. Civic groups and organizations interested in community betterment through Resource Conservation and Development may endorse applications for planning assistance.

Legal public organizations in Medina County which have indicated an interest in the RC&D Project are: Hondo Independent School District, Edwards Underground Water District, Medina Valley Soil and Water Conservation District, Medina County Water Conservation and Improvement District No. 2, Bexar-Medina-Atascosa Water Improvement District No. 1, City of Natalia, City of LaCoste, City of Devine, and City of Hondo. Endorsers to the project are: Hondo Garden Club, Southwest Texas Chapter of the Soil Conservation Society of America, Hondo Young Farmers, Hondo Chamber of Commerce, Hondo Lions Club, D'Hanis Lion's Club and the Devine Chamber of Commerce.

Some of the measures that may be carried out with the assistance of Resource Conservation and Development Funds include critical erosion area treatment, flood prevention structures, public water-based recreation development, public water-based fish and wildlife development, farm irrigation, land drainage and soil and water management for agricultural related pollutant control.

Everett Abbott, District Conservationist of the SCS Hondo Field Office is assigned the responsibility of coordinating the RC&D Project plan and will be working with groups and individuals in the ten county area on plan development.

Medina rains finally come

It was almost too late, but it finally came. Rain, so abundant a commodity throughout 1973, returned to Medina County last Wednesday after a layoff of two months.

Totals as high as 2.55 inches were logged, with the County-wide average falling somewhere near 1.70 inches.

As predicted in an early-1974 Taylor-Chapman rain forecast, the rain started within two minutes of a 5:02 a.m. moon-change Wednesday morning. Over the following four days the general rain revived the rangelands, put new green into the small grains crop, and lessened the threat of grass fires which have struck repeatedly this month.

A quick check on possible economic impact of the shower with County Agent Glenn Bragg gained this information:

"This rain isn't enough to make the small-grains crop for this year by itself, but it probably saved between $2-3 million.

"If the rain keeps up, we can probably harvest 90 to 95 percent of the planted crop. Of course, if it doesn't rain, we could still lose it all, too."

Bragg explained that about 30,000 acres of small grains had been planted in the County this year. Between five and ten percent had already been plowed up, due to the dry conditions.

The Taylor-Chapman run-down looks for possible rain again this weekend. Moon-change, we are informed, will occur again Thursday morning at 1:39 a.m.

The following rainfall reports were logged:

Woodward Ranch, 1.20 inches; Jack Ulbrich Jr., 1.60; M. Batot, 1.80; Kathleen Finger, 1.95; Gus Rothe, 2 in.; Frank Rothe, 1.75; George Koch, 1.50; H. Vogel, 1.50; Clayton Woolls, 1.90; T. ## Art League to meet

Hondo Art League will hold its monthly meeting a week earlier, on Monday, February 4, instead of its regular second-Monday meeting date.

Plans for workshops for the new year will be discussed at the meeting, along with a program by Eugen Reinartz on the life of Charles Russell. Russell was a noted Western artist.

LOCAL JUDGES AT-TEND SEMINAR - Four justices of the peace from Bexar and Medina Counties were among the 51 judges who participated in a regional 20-hour in-service training school held in San Antonio Jan. 15-18. The local judges participating were, left to right, Judge John V. Parma of Precinct 8, Place 1, La

Coste; Judge Daniel Ruempel of Precinct 3, Castroville; Judge Harold Herring of Precinct 1, Hondo and Judge Lloyd Kirkpatrick of Precinct 5, San Antonio.

Final escapee captured

Alfonso Walker, 25, the last of five prisoners who escaped from the Medina County Jail last August 31, has been recaptured in Atlanta, Georgia.

Medina County Sheriff Charles J. Hitzfelder travelled to Atlanta this week to return Walker to the Medina County Jail.

An Atlanta Federal Circuit Court Judge set bond for Walker at $500,000.

Walker, a San Antonio man, was thought by Sheriff Hitzfelder to be in New Orleans and Washington, D. C., before he was arrested by F.B.I. agents in Atlanta Thursday night, January 24.

Walker was captured in an Atlanta apartment, and offered no resistance when he was arrested. F.B.I. agent Leo Conroy of Atlanta said Walker had shaved his beard and cut his hair in an attempt to change his appearance.

Walker was being held in the

Medina County Jail on charges of Robbery by Assault and Attempted Murder, in connection with the holdup of a Castroville liquor store and the shooting of Castroville City Marshall Frank Haynes.

He was first captured after a wild chase and shootout near Lackland Air Force Base in San Antonio. Walker's brother and a baby were killed in the exchange of gunfire.

Alamo Area RC&D application accepted

The Alamo Area Resource Conservation and Development application has been accepted by the Governor's Office, the State office of the Soil Conservation Service and the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The Alamo Area RC&D Project will include ten counties: Atascosa, Bander, Bexar, Comal, Frio, Guadalupe, Kendall, Kerr, Medina and Wilson Counties. The Soil Conservation Service will provide the leadership and primary assistance to the sponsors in developing the RC&D program plan. They will encourage and assist the sponsors in securing the help of individuals and units of local government in developing the plan. The SCS will encourage the sponsors to make full use of local resources, committees, organizations and groups in developing the program.

Since the SCS has been in the RC&D business for many years, State and Federal agencies are aware that they will be called upon for help in preparing the application and for planning assistance. In most cases they will cooperate in this undertaking, although there will be some cases where a particular agency may not have an interest in a proposed project area. Agencies, especially those who helped in preparing the plan, will be given an opportunity to review the final draft before it is printed.

Multiple sponsorship is very desirable and usually necessary to represent the various interests in resource development. It is expected that in every case the Soil and Water Conservation Districts in the project area will be sponsors of the application. Other sponsors could be organizations such as water districts, other special districts, towns, cities, counties, and other state and local agencies. Civic groups and organizations interested in community betterment through Resource Conservation and Development may endorse applications for planning assistance.

Legal public organizations in Medina County which have indicated an interest in the RC&D Project are: Hondo Independent School District, Edwards Underground Water District, Medina Valley Soil and Water Conservation District, Medina County Water Conservation and Improvement District No. 2, Bexar-Medina-Atascosa Water Improvement District No. 1, City of Natalia, City of LaCoste, City of Devine, and City of Hondo. Endorsers to the project are: Hondo Garden Club, Southwest Texas Chapter of the Soil Conservation Society of America, Hondo Young Farmers, Hondo Chamber of Commerce, Hondo Lions Club, D'Hanis Lion's Club and the Devine Chamber of Commerce.

Some of the measures that may be carried out with the assistance of Resource Conservation and Development Funds include critical erosion area treatment, flood prevention structures, public water-based recreation development, public water-based fish and wildlife development, farm irrigation, land drainage and soil and water management for agricultural related pollutant control.

Everett Abbott, District Conservationist of the SCS Hondo Field Office is assigned the responsibility of coordinating the RC&D Project plan and will be working with groups and individuals in the ten county area on plan development.

KINGSVILLE -- Sixteen agricultural education students from Texas A&I University in Kingsville have begun student teaching assignments at South Texas high schools.

Uvalde Seminar to deal with safety laws

A course designed to help businessmen through the maze of regulations of the Williams-Steiger Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970 (OSHAct) will be taught from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. February 5, at the Uvalde Civic Center Reading Room in Uvalde.

The one-day seminar, Orientation to OSHAct, was developed by the Occupational Safety and Health Administration. It will be conducted here free of charge by the Texas Safety Association in cooperation with the Uvalde Chamber of Commerce. Attendants will include employers, employees and their representatives.

"According to information received, virtually all businesses, even those with one or more employees, must comply with regulations of the OSH Act," said Chamber of Commerce manager Cal Newton.

"Many operators of small and medium size businesses may be in serious violation of the law without even realizing that such laws exist," continued Newton. "The U. S. Department of Labor reports that only 31 percent of 31,379 establishments checked during the 12 months ending June, 1973, were found to be in compliance with job safety and health standards, and we are cooperating in this one-day seminar for the benefit of our local and area business people."

Orientation to OSHAct, along with three other seminars, is being taught by TSA under contract with the National Safety Council to provide information needed by every businessman. Topics covered in this first course will include, the scope and general requirements of the law; Federal standards which apply to business and industry operations; the most common violations of the standards that have been cited; proper records-keeping and how to comply with the OSHAct; and employee's and employer's rights and responsibilities.

In addition to instruction from a qualified safety professional, each attendant will receive references and guides to OSHAct and the Occupational Safety and Health Administration.

Businessmen and employers interested in registering for the course should contact the Uvalde Chamber of Commerce, P. O. Box 706, Uvalde, Texas, telephone (512) 278-3361.

4-H News

North Hondo 4-H

North Hondo 4-H had its meeting January 21 at 7:30. The meeting was called to order by Denise Saathoff. Karen Reinartz led the prayer and pledge. The song was led by Travis Samford. Minutes were read and roll was called by Cathy Cox.

We had two new members, Alice Martinez and Brian Reus.

The program was by Mr. Eugene Saathoff and it was on turkey calling. He imitated the mating call and the way turkeys talk. It was a very nice program and we appreciate his coming.

We had reports from Andrea Saathoff on cooking, Terri Foster on cooking and Monte Bippert on rifle club.

Mrs. Saathoff reminded us of the Food Show to be held January 26 in Devine at 1:00. She also announced that there was going to be a camp this summer, June 17-20 at H. E. B. camp and it would cost about $15.00.

The meeting was adjourned and refreshments were served by the Samfords and Nietenhoefer.

Yesterday, Jan. 23, the Chinese New Year of the Tiger began. Maybe it will help to return the tiger that was supposed to be in every tank of gasoline of a well-advertised brand.

Maybe, even, the tiger can relax and enjoy his daily libation all the more at sips of 55 mph, instead of gulps at 70 mph or faster.

Stand by for Ground Hog [not as in sausage] Day, Saturday, Feb. 2. In some parts of the country the temperature-amental little critter is known as a "Whistle-pig" because of the long piercing whistle he gives when he scents danger.

In Quarryville, near Lancaster, Pa., the Slumbering Groundhog Lodge, whose membership includes a Puddleduck Observation Squad meets annually on Feb. 2nd. One year, scouts reported that the weather was so cold the Marmota Monax's shadow froze to the ground.

No danger of that in Texas, we hope, but it is still a tradition to figure out the whims of weather for the following six weeks.

A story about Game Warden August Timmerman appeared in the CC Caller of Jan. 20th. From it I learned that the Timmerman's son, Jimmy, lives in Portland - almost a neighbor.

I am sending the clipping to Mrs. T. She might want to add it to the family's reminiscence files which should make good reading for the grandchildren.

Comet Kohoutek failed to live up to its advanced billing. It was a sad tale for the tail. Maybe the comet will go back into the re-tail business again before its next scheduled appearance some umpteen years hence.

A Houston astrologer says Kohoutek "is having profound effects on most of our lives."

Any upheavals and inner conflicts we may have been experiencing can be attributed to what is now diagnosed as "The Kohoutek Blues," if that explains any cases of the fuzz-duddies to anyone's satisfaction.

SAL LEYVA, of the ANVIL's office equipment division, might have been trying to prove the merits of metal washers as a source of vitamins.

While he and Manager PETE PEDROZA were working on the innards of a mimeographing machine which was on the operating table in the emergency room, Sal got beneath the machine while Pete steadied a tricky washer into position.

Pete heard strange sounds emerging from the general direction of Sal's broadcasting system and probably asked "Que pasa?"

What had happened was that the washer had fallen into Sal's mouth and had left him speechless for the moment.

True to the Anvil's tradition that "we service every machine we sell," the missing part was retrieved and reinstalled exactly where it was supposed to be. Business as usual. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Any news relating to Medina County catches my roving eye when such news appears in our local papers. So it was that I learned about certain A&I Kingsville students.

From Hondo Cindy Sue Schuehle and Victor Rios Jr. made the Honor Roll during the first semester; as did Michael Schneider and Richard West, both of Devine. Denise McAllister of that city made the Dean's list.

A&I graduates, as of December, who will receive their diplomas May 17, include [Devine] Helen Griffin BS; and three Hondoans, Delia M. Lopez, BBA; Mario A. Lopez, BBA; and Glenn F. Muennink, BS.

JIM MENKE sent me a copy of the name index he and DORIS had painstakingly compiled from A. J. Sowell's "Early Settlers and Indian Fighters of SW Texas." What a labor of love for Medina County this index represents!

To satisfy my statistical curiosity, I had my adding machine figure out the total number of names involved and we came up with 2,609. I gave up on trying to count the number of times each name appeared in the book. Think of the detail involved for the authors in assembling this ready reference which should prove of real value to those who will use it.

The energy crisis continues to take up much of the news space with all the pros and cons of viewpoint. I like what the director of our National Parks Service said on the subject, "Since we are all in the same boat, we had better all try to row in the same direction."

Holler when you see land, matey!

Remember when little girls who seemed inclined to grow every direction but straight and tall wore styles made for "Chubbies"? Not any more.

A current trade name for such is "Junior Plenty, whose styles start where the others end."

KINGSVILLE -- Sixteen agricultural education students from Texas A&I University in Kingsville have begun student teaching assignments at South Texas high schools.

Uvalde Seminar to deal with safety laws

A course designed to help businessmen through the maze of regulations of the Williams-Steiger Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970 (OSHA) will be taught from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. February 5, at the Uvalde Civic Center Reading Room in Uvalde.

The one-day seminar, Orientation to OSHA, was developed by the Occupational Safety and Health Administration. It will be conducted here free of charge by the Texas Safety Association in cooperation with the Uvalde Chamber of Commerce. Attendees will include employers, employees and their representatives.

"According to information received, virtually all businesses, even those with one or more employees, must comply with regulations of the OSHA Act," said Chamber of Commerce manager Cal Newton.

"Many operators of small and medium size businesses may be in serious violation of the law without even realizing that such laws exist," continued Newton. "The U. S. Department of Labor reports that only 31 percent of 31,379 establishments checked during the 12 months ending June, 1973, were found to be in compliance with job safety and health standards, and we are cooperating in this one-day seminar for the benefit of our local and area business people."

Orientation to OSHA, along with three other seminars, is being taught by TSA under contract with the National Safety Council to provide information needed by every businessman. Topics covered in this first course will include, the scope and general requirements of the law; Federal standards which apply to business and industry operations; the most common violations of the standards that have been cited; proper records-keeping and how to comply with the OSHA Act; and employee's and employer's rights and responsibilities.

In addition to instruction from a qualified safety professional, each attendant will receive references and guides to OSHA Act and the Occupational Safety and Health Administration.

Businessmen and employers interested in registering for the course should contact the Uvalde Chamber of Commerce, P. O. Box 706, Uvalde, Texas, telephone (512) 278-3361.

4-H News

North Hondo 4-H

North Hondo 4-H had its meeting January 21 at 7:30. The meeting was called to order by Denise Saathoff. Karen Reinartz led the prayer and pledge. The song was led by Travis Samford. Minutes were read and roll was called by Cathy Cox.

We had two new members, Alice Martinez and Brian Reus.

The program was by Mr. Eugene Saathoff and it was on turkey calling. He imitated the mating call and the way turkeys talk. It was a very nice program and we appreciate his coming.

We had reports from Andrea Saathoff on cooking, Terri Foster on cooking and Monte Bippert on rifle club.

Mrs. Saathoff reminded us of the Food Show to be held January 26 in Devine at 1:00. She also announced that there was going to be a camp this summer, June 17-20 at H. E. B. camp and it would cost about $15.00.

The meeting was adjourned and refreshments were served by the Samfords and Nietenhoefers.

SCOUTING NEWS

SAN ANTONIO -- "Unless you're one of those involved in Scouting in Hondo and Medina County, you may not be aware of the entire contribution these young people and their leaders are making to your community."

This statement was made this week by Herbert J. Wilkins, Scout executive of Alamo Area Council, Boy Scouts of America. The council's headquarters for its 13 counties is here.

Wilkins made his statement in connection with the forthcoming month-observance of Scouting Anniversary Month in February. It will mark the 64th anniversary of Scouting in the United States.

"Through its unique educational program, the Boy Scouts of America has as its purpose character development, citizenship training, and physical and mental fitness," Wilkins said.

"This purpose is achieved through a carefully designed advance program, outdoor activities, opportunities for youthful decision making, and deals that become a personal challenge to boys."

Activities to be carried out by individual Scout troops and Cub packs in February include setting up special exhibits, carrying out community projects, attending church in uniform, and appearing on civic and service club programs.

The Alamo Area Council hit an all-time high in the enrollment of boys in Scouting, with the 22,000th Scout joining the program as of Dec. 31.

The Pinewood derby is a father and son activity in cub scouting. The cars were carved by father and son and raced by the son. The cars are gravity powered and run down a regulation track.

The winners of the races were: First Place--Steven Long, son of Roy Long; Second Place--Scott Glowka, son of Paul Glowka; Third Place--Xavier Lopez, son of Raul Lopez; Most Beautiful -- Mark Rogers, son of John Rogers; Most Original -- Bradley Gwartney, son of Bud Gwartney.

Soil Survey available

Farmers concerned with using the best available acreage to increase their cropland can get valuable data from a soil survey, Edward E. Thomas, state conservationist for the U. S. Soil Conservation Service, said today.

"Soil survey field work has been completed for Medina and 123 other counties in Texas," Thomas said. "And the data is available to anyone making land use decisions."

Work is currently underway on soil surveys for all remaining counties in the state, Thomas added.

"With a soil survey map, you can read the land like a book," said Thomas. "Some soils are ideal for a particular crop. Others are better off in another crop, or left in grass, trees, or as wetland. And on some soils, the owner can choose between pasture, trees, or crops."

"The point is that a great deal of soil information is available to farmers and other land users. Even where surveys are not yet completed, the Soil Conservation Service -- working through local conservation districts -- often can provide at least partial soils data to anyone considering a change in land use."

Thomas added, "Although farmers are the biggest group of users, soil survey information is also very helpful to engineers and urban land use planners who need to know about drainage patterns, depth to bedrock, foundation hazards, or other uses being planned for them. A number of cities in Texas have made changes in their land use plans after checking a soil map -- and as a result, they saved a great deal of money in construction costs."

Local soil survey maps and information can be obtained from the nearest Soil Conservation Service office.

Onis Wiemers is pharmacist-intern

There's a new face behind the prescription counter these days at Peden's Rexall store but it has a familiar old name.

Onis Wiemers, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Wiemers of Hondo, is working in the drugstore as part of an internship program which leads to his licensing as a registered pharmacist.

Having earned a bachelor's degree in pharmacy at the University of Texas in December, Onis will spend about 400 hours this spring, filling prescriptions under the watchful eye of registered pharmacists Bob or Ann Peden.

The program is a two-part one. During his course of pharmacy-school studies, a student must spend 600 hours gaining practical experience in a retail pharmacy. There he may file prescription orders and get drugs for the pharmacist, but he may not dispense medicine or fill prescriptions.

After graduation and completion of the first part of the two-part Board of Pharmacy exam, he must spend 400 additional hours working under the supervision of a registered pharmacist. The supervising pharmacist must be out of school more than three years and meet volume and library standards.

Onis is an old hand at drugstore duties -- he worked part-time at Peden's as a Hondo High School student and later, between college semesters.

"I'm really enjoying working and living here again," Wiemers affirmed. "I took the first, or written, part of the Board earlier this month. Now, I'll have to wait until May to take the Practical and Oral parts, so this is a good place to get the experience and earn a little money."

What about after May, he was asked.

"Aw, I really don't have any plans beyond May," the tall, mustachioed future-pharmacist answered.

"I've still got two parts of the Board to finish. I haven't made any definite plans later than that."

Police Report

The Hondo Police Department received $975.50 worth of police equipment with a local outlay of only $141.45. The Medina County Sheriff's Office purchased $4,023.00 worth of equipment and will pay only $568.86. And local taxpayers reap the benefits.

Great savings to area citizens were possible because of a cooperative effort among members of the Alamo Area Council of Governments and grant from the Texas Criminal Justice Council. Together 7 counties and 20 cities in the Alamo Region purchased $36,145.00 worth of equipment to improve their law enforcement systems.

Sheriff Charles Hitzfelder and Hondo Police Chief Jim Shofner picked up the new police equipment from the AACOG offices. The Hondo Police Department purchased a fingerprint kit and consolidated photographic kit which includes an all-purpose camera used at the scene of a crime to take photographs of evidence. The Sheriff's office now has a narcotics kit, consolidated photographic kit, fingerprint kit, crime scene sketching kit, fingerprinting comparator and evidence collection kit.

Gun Club

The Medina County Gun Club will hold a regular meeting on Monday, February 4, at 7:00 p.m. at the Indoor Range. Items of business to be discussed include setting a date for a metallic silhouette target shooting match and construction of a trap range.

Metallic silhouette targets of chickens and javelinas are complete. Larry Winkler has constructed a trap house.

All persons interested in rifle and shotgun shooting are invited to attend this meeting. The range is located in the south two story barracks on Hondo Air Base.

Stock Show box office open

Box offices for the 25th Anniversary San Antonio Stock Show and Rodeo opened at 10 a.m. Friday amid a flurry of color.

Shannon Woods, the show's Silver Sweetheart, officially opened the offices when she released 2,500 brightly colored balloons in front of the CPM electronic sign. The balloons, 250 of which contained a total of $2,000 worth of rodeo performance, Friday, Feb. 8, floated skyward where, in due time, they are expected to break and return to earth.

Box offices for the 1974 Stock Show are located in all Sears and Montgomery Ward stores, Joe Freeman Coliseum and Kallison's downtown. Kallison's customers may park free when purchasing rodeo tickets.

Persons retrieving any of the lucky balloons may bring them to the Coliseum box office and redeem them for two tickets to the opening night rodeo performance.

The 25th Anniversary Stock Show will run from Feb. 8 through 17.

Stars for the 1974 show are: Lynn Anderson, Feb. 8, 9, 10 and 11; Johnny Rodriguez, Feb. 12, 13 and 14; and John Davidson, Feb. 15, 16 and 17.

Retrieved passes must be redeemed no later than Friday, Feb. 1.

Gary Saathoff

Gary Saathoff to Arizona Range Camp

Gary Saathoff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo A. Saathoff, Tarpley Route, Hondo, has been chosen by the Directors of the 1973 Range Camp in Junction held last summer to attend the Youth Range Forum in Tucson, Arizona. Gary, along with Steve Thompson of Vanderpool, Texas, will be the youth representing the Texas Section of the Society for Range Management.

These youth will be accompanied to Tucson by J. Daniel Rodgers, Range Specialist, Texas A&M University, Texas Youth Range Forum Chairman. They are to depart Hondo Friday at 11:00 a.m. on February 1 and return possibly Saturday, February 9.

Gary was selected on his outstanding interest and ability shown at the range camp this summer in

Junction. Gary has been on the State range judging team and has had an interest in the range conditions of Medina County and his dad's place on the Tarpley road. Gary plans to attend Texas A&M University and major in Geology.

Gary is a member of the Hondo FFA Chapter where he is currently serving as secretary of the chapter. Gary received the State Farmer Degree last July in Fort Worth. Gary is a great asset to the Hondo chapter as he has served on various committees from year to year. Gary's participation in the range camp at Junction was made possible through the Medina Valley Soil and Water Conservation District sponsoring his trip. The district sponsors at least one student to attend the camp each year from the area covered by the district.

This is the first time that Medina County has a boy to have the honor to attend the Range Forum in Tucson.

Gary was accompanied to Junction by his advisor, J. D. Schmidt, who is currently assisting him with his presentation to be given at Tucson. John McAnelly was his advisor while he was on the range judging team.

Gary was a member of 10th place team in State Range Judging in 1972.

Other members of this team were Gene McAnelly, Bobby Cox, and Glenn Sturm.

St. Louis Community Affairs office sponsors projects

The Community Affairs Department of St. Louis Church is sponsoring several projects. The first is to encourage everyone in Castroville to have a vegetable garden.

James E. Bennett is the Head Gardener, but welcomes assistance from gardeners in this area who have had more experience, as he is a newcomer from Kentucky. The Moyer Formation Center is furnishing a hot house for the young plants.

The second project of the Dept. is the sponsoring of three public meetings.

The first will be on Feb. 13 at 8:00 p.m. The topic to be discussed is our revised Constitution.

The second meeting will be held on Wednesday March 13 when all candidates for city or county offices will be given the opportunity to speak.

The third meeting will be in April, and the topic will be credit unions. All meetings will be held at the Rainbow Theatre, and are free to the general public.

About 30 students of Architecture from San Antonio College will be working in Castroville for the next 14 weeks, making a study of the town, its history, architecture, transportation, ethnic groups, and topographical analysis.

Architects in charge are Alex, Caragone, Schubert, and Engle. The town was selected by AACOG as it was most suitable in size, location and heritage. A screening committee made of up of Castroville citizens will act as an advisory body. Their first meeting will be Feb. 1 at 8:00 p.m. at the Castroville City Hall.

Charles Schlentz wins science honor

His entry project was titled "Free Fall in a Vacuum Chamber."

All members of the Honors Group will be recommended for admission and scholarship awards to the nation's colleges and universities. Many will receive further recognition in state Science Talent Searches.

February 6, forty members of the Honors Group will be announced as the top winners of the Talent Search. They will be judged for $67,500 in Westinghouse Science Scholarships and Awards.

Scholarships and the operation of the Search are supported by the Westinghouse Educational Foundation of the Westinghouse Electric Corporation

IRS temporary office

SAN ANTONIO -- The Internal Revenue Service has announced that the temporary office in the Northwest Shopping Center will be staffed again this year to help taxpayers with their 1973 returns.

Richard J. Stakem Jr., district director for the IRS in southern Texas, said the office will be open for service from 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. weekdays.

Last year the IRS tested the temporary office concept of service to find out if it would be worthwhile. "About 6,000 taxpayers came to us for help at the Northwest Shopping Center location last year during the test," Stakem said.

Trained taxpayer service representatives will be on hand to aid in the preparation of individual returns or to check over returns that taxpayers have made out. Free parking is available.

Stakem said that cash payments cannot be accepted at the temporary offices; however, money orders and personal checks will be accepted.

HOW IMPORTANT IS FLOSSING?

Most dental authorities today consider flossing to be at least almost important as brushing your teeth. This is because proper use of dental floss will effectively remove disease-causing bacterial plaque from areas between the teeth, where a toothbrush cannot reach.

But, many people with average normal dexterity find flossing to be difficult and awkward. Some of the reasons are gagging, the floss gets slippery, fingers get in the way, it takes too much time. Now, as the importance of flossing is realized new aids to make it easier are being developed. See our complete dental aids section.

Stock Show box office open

Box offices for the 25th Anniversary San Antonio Stock Show and Rodeo opened at 10 a.m. Friday amid a flurry of color.

Shannon Woods, the show's Silver Sweetheart, officially opened the offices when she released 2,500 brightly colored balloons in front of the CPM electronic sign.

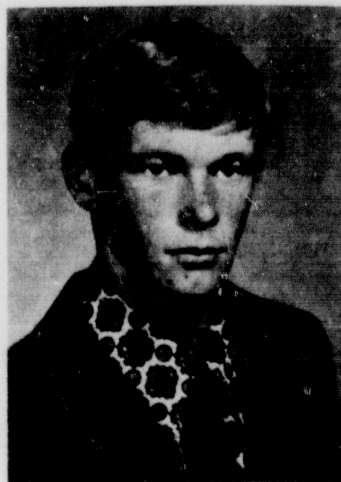

The balloons, 250 of which contained a total of $2,000 worth of rodeo performance, Friday, Feb. 8, floated skyward where, in due time, they are expected to break and return to earth.

Persons retrieving any of the lucky balloons may bring them to the Coliseum box office and redeem them for two tickets to the opening night rodeo performance.

The 25th Anniversary Stock Show will run from Feb. 8 through 17.

Stars for the 1974 show are: Lynn Anderson, Feb. 8, 9, 10 and 11; Johnny Rodriguez, Feb. 12, 13 and 14; and John Davidson, Feb. 15, 16 and 17.

Retrieved passes must be redeemed no later than Friday, Feb. 1.

Gary Saathoff

Gary Saathoff to Arizona Range Camp

Gary Saathoff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo A. Saathoff, Tarpley Route, Hondo, has been chosen by the Directors of the 1973 Range Camp in Junction held last summer to attend the Youth Range Forum in Tucson, Arizona. Gary, along with Steve Thompson of Vanderpool, Texas, will be the youth representing the Texas Section of the Society for Range Management.

These youth will be accompanied to Tucson by J. Daniel Rodgers, Range Specialist, Texas A&M University, Texas Youth Range Forum Chairman. They are to depart Hondo Friday at 11:00 a.m. on February 1 and return possibly Saturday, February 9.

Gary was selected on his outstanding interest and ability shown at the range camp this summer in

Junction. Gary has been on the State range judging team and has had an interest in the range conditions of Medina County and his dad's place on the Tarpley road. Gary plans to attend Texas A&M University and major in Geology.

Gary is a member of the Hondo FFA Chapter where he is currently serving as secretary of the chapter. Gary received the State Farmer Degree last July in Fort Worth. Gary is a great asset to the Hondo chapter as he has served on various committees from year to year. Gary's participation in the range camp at Junction was made possible through the Medina Valley Soil and Water Conservation District sponsoring his trip. The district sponsors at least one student to attend the camp each year from the area covered by the district.

This is the first time that Medina County has a boy to have the honor to attend the Range Forum in Tucson.

Gary was accompanied to Junction by his advisor, J. D. Schmidt, who is currently assisting him with his presentation to be given at Tucson. John McAnelly was his advisor while he was on the range judging team.

Gary was a member of 10th place team in State Range Judging in 1972.

Other members of this team were Gene McAnelly, Bobby Cox, and Glenn Sturm.

St. Louis Community Affairs office sponsors projects

The Community Affairs Department of St. Louis Church is sponsoring several projects. The first is to encourage everyone in Castroville to have a vegetable garden.

James E. Bennett is the Head Gardener, but welcomes assistance from gardeners in this area who have had more experience, as he is a newcomer from Kentucky. The Moye Formation Center is furnishing a hot house for the young plants.

The second project of the Dept. is the sponsoring of three public meetings.

The first will be on Feb. 13 at 8:00 p.m. The topic to be discussed is our revised Constitution.

The second meeting will be held on Wednesday March 13 when all candidates for city or county offices will be given the opportunity to speak.

The third meeting will be in April, and the topic will be credit unions. All meetings will be held at the Rainbow Theatre, and are free to the general public.

About 30 students of Architecture from San Antonio College will be working in Castroville for the next 14 weeks, making a study of the town, its history, architecture, transportation, ethnic groups, and topographical analysis.

Architects in charge are Alex, Caragone, Schubert, and Engle. The town was selected by AACOG as it was most suitable in size, location and heritage. A screening committee made up of Castroville citizens will act as an advisory body. Their first meeting will be Feb. 1 at 8:00 p.m. at the Castroville City Hall.

Charles Schlentz wins science honor

A Hondo High School senior has placed among the Honors group of the 33rd Annual Science Talent Search, conducted by Science Service.

Three hundred students were selected nationwide by the foundation, out of a total of 12,891 entrants.

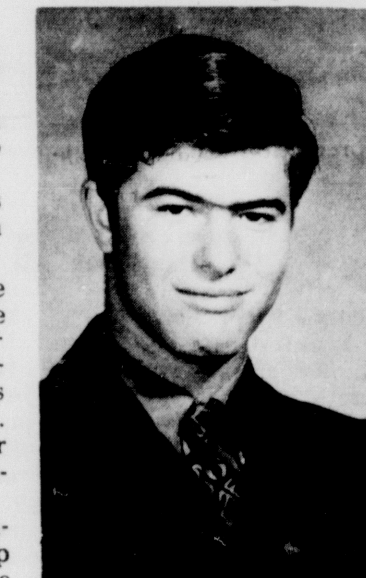

Charles Earl Schlentz son of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Schlentz of 1408 30th St., Hondo, was one of thirteen students from Texas who were chosen.

His entry project was titled "Free Fall in a Vacuum Chamber."

All members of the Honors Group will be recommended for admission and scholarship awards to the nation's colleges and universities. Many will receive further recognition in state Science Talent Searches.

February 6, forty members of the Honors Group will be announced as the top winners of the Talent Search. They will be judged for $67,500 in Westinghouse Science Scholarships and Awards. Scholarships and the operation of the Search are supported by the Westinghouse Educational Foundation of the Westinghouse Electric Corporation.

IRS temporary office

SAN ANTONIO -- The Internal Revenue Service has announced that the temporary office in the Northwest Shopping Center will be staffed again this year to help taxpayers with their 1973 returns.

Richard J. Stakem Jr., district director for the IRS in southern Texas, said the office will be open for service from 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. weekdays.

Last year the IRS tested the temporary office concept of service to find out if it would be worthwhile. "About 6,000 taxpayers came to us for help at the Northwest Shopping Center location last year during the test," Stakem said.

Trained taxpayer service representatives will be on hand to aid in the preparation of individual returns or to check over returns that taxpayers have made out. Free parking is available.

NOTICE OF HIGHWAY CONSTRUCTION

The Texas Highway Department offered an opportunity for a public hearing to be requested by publication on January 3, and January 10, 1974, of a notice reporting the proposed construction of an extension of F. M. Highway 2676, in the central part of Medina County, beginning at the end of existing F. M. 2676, 4.3 miles northeast of S. H. 173, and extending to the northeast approximately 3.5 miles.

No requests for a public hearing were received; therefore, the Resident Engineer of the Texas Highway Department at Hondo, Texas, has submitted all of the engineering data and information received in connection with the development of this project for approval of the proposed route and design by the District Engineer of the Texas Highway Department.

The proposed construction will provide a typical low volume, Farm to Market Road design consisting of a two-lane, 20 foot wide, asphalt surfaced roadway. The proposed route generally follows an existing county road; however, several sections are on new location. The usual and minimum right of way width is 120 feet. The proposed project is not anticipated to require any relocation of families, individuals or businesses.

Maps, drawings showing geometric design, and all other available data concerning the development of this project, including environmental studies, may be inspected and copied at the Resident Engineer's Office in Hondo, Texas.

Owls fall to Orange, bounce back

Hondo is doing all it can to stay in the race for District championship, but Medina Valley had other ideas Friday night.

The Orangemen dispatched Hondo 55-47, but Hondo roared back Tuesday night to outscore Carrizo Springs by 79-49.

Now, the tie between Medina Valley and Pearsall continues with Hondo still in striking distance. Tuesday night, Medina Valley defeated Devine 56-45.

Medina Valley put Hondo basketball hopes in doubt Friday night as they outscored the Owls 55-47.

The Orangemen took advantage of cold Hondo shooting in the third (9 points) and fourth (11 points) quarters to overcome a one-point halftime deficit.

Hondo led 27-26 going into the midway break, but Medina Valley moved to a 40-36 lead after three quarters, then expanded their lead to win.

Three players reached 18-point totals for the night -- Paul Richards for the Owls, and Mario Garza and Richard Lopez for Medina Valley.

Other Hondo scorers were Ray Garcia with 11 points, Bobby Rios with 8, Tony Hackebell with 6, and Mike Groff with 4.

Rounding out the Orange scoring were David

DeCock with 10 points, Calvin Lange with 4, James Bendele with 3, and Gerry Keller with 2.

CARRIZO SPRINGS Hondo rushed off to a 41-28 halftime lead over Carrizo, then added 38 more points in the second half to win 79-49.

Dominating both teams and leading the Hondo effort was Paul Richards, who dropped in 34 points. Other Owls in double figures were Mike Groff with 22 points and Ray Garcia with 12.

Carrizo was led by Billy

John's 14 points and Hector Saenz' 12.

Hondo will be open tomorrow night, but Tuesday they will be in Devine to take on the Warhorses in their final matchup of the season.

The teams' first game will be against Pearsall on February 14. They will be playing other games with Southwest, Medina Valley, and Devine before the District meet.

The District meet will be held the 28 and 29 of March in Pearsall.

Coaches of the teams in our district-Carrizo Springs, Medina Valley, Cotulla, Devine, Hondo, and Pearsall--will determine the set-up to be used at the meet.

Three set-up choices for the meet are the Round Robin, the double elimination, and the single elimination.

In the Round Robin each team will play one game with every team in the district.

In double elimination a team is disqualified after losing 2 games.

In single elimination a team is through after losing one game.

Girls will actually be playing power volleyball which is the same type of volleyball used in the Olympics. The main difference in this game deals with the use of the hands and arms.

There can be no underhand, open hand scoop.

Mrs. Riddell also said that she plans to have a Jr. High team composed of 12 girls.

The schedule for the teams will be published at a later date.

CROWDED REBOUNDERS . . . Richard Coronado [22] and Gene McNelly [21] await the shot of high-jumping Paul Richards in action against Cotulla last week.

D'Hanis Rook Tourney to begin Sunday

Sunday marks the first round of competition in the D'Hanis Rook Tournament, held annually in D'Hanis Parish Hall.

Preparations are in progress for what could be the biggest turnout in the Tournament's three years. Last year, sixty couples spent the two Sundays locked in "hand to hand" combat.

Contestants are asked to be at the Hall by 1:30 p.m. Sunday, to draw for pairings and table numbers. First round play will begin promptly at 2 p.m.

Registration will be held through Saturday at Medina Savings in Hondo, as well as the Country Mart and Gallo Lumber Company in D'Hanis. Fee for early registration is $5 per couple. The only restriction is that entrants must be beyond high school age to enter. No high school students will be allowed to compete.

For those who wait until the final registration at the Hall Sunday between 12:30-1:30 p.m., registration will cost $6 per couple.

The first day's competition will determine Upper and Lower flights for the final round on Sunday February 10.

After the first five games Sunday, entrants will be divided into the two groups on the basis of their first day's record. Those who win three or more games will automatically be placed in the Upper Flight.

Upper Flight teams will compete for a prize of $15 ($30 per couple) in the final round. Lower Flight teams will compete for a prize of $20 ($10 per team member) on Feb. 10.

On both Sundays, a prize of $5 will be awarded to the first couple who bids and scores 100 points.

Also on both Sundays, refreshments will be available throughout the afternoon. Concessions will include food, soft drinks, and ice.

Phase 2--Volleyball

By Rhonda Graff

The second big change for 1974 at Hondo High will be the girls' volleyball teams coached by Mrs. George Riddell.

The 20 girls chosen will be divided into two teams. These teams will consist of six players and 4 subs per team.

The teams' first game will be against Pearsall on February 14. They will be playing other games with Southwest, Medina Valley, and Devine before the District meet.

The District meet will be held the 28 and 29 of March in Pearsall.

Coaches of the teams in our district-Carrizo Springs, Medina Valley, Cotulla, Devine, Hondo, and Pearsall--will determine the set-up to be used at the meet.

patched Hondo 55-47, but Hondo roared back Tuesday night to outscore Carrizo Springs by 79-49.

Now, the tie between Medina Valley and Pearlsall continues with Hondo still in striking distance. Tuesday night, Medina Valley defeated Devine 56-45.

Medina Valley put Hondo basketball hopes in doubt Friday night as they outscored the Owls 55-47.

The Orangemen took advantage of cold Hondo shooting in the third (9 points) and fourth (11 points) quarters to overcome a one-point halftime deficit.

Hondo led 27-26 going into the midway break, but Medina Valley moved to a 40-36 lead after three quarters, then expanded their lead to win.

Three players reached 18-point totals for the night -- Paul Richards for the Owls, and Mario Garza and Richard Lopez for Medina Valley.

Other Hondo scorers were Ray Garcia with 11 points, Bobby Rios with 8, Tony Hackbeil with 6, and Mike Groff with 4.

Rounding out the Orange scoring were David

CROWDED REBOUNDERS ... Richard Coronado [22] and Gene McAnelly [21] await the shot of high-jumping Paul Richards in action against Cotulla last week.

DeCock with 10 points, Colvin Lange with 4, James Bendele with 3, and Gerry Keller with 2.

CARRIZO SPRINGS
Hondo rushed off to a 41-28 halftime lead over Carrizo, then added 38 more points in the second half to win 79-49.

Dominating both teams

and leading the Hondo effort was Paul Richards, who dropped in 34 points. Other Owls in double figures were Mike Groff with 22 points and Ray Garcia with 12.

Carrizo was led by Billy

John's 14 points and Hector Saenz' 12.

Hondo will be open tomorrow night, but Tuesday they will be in Devine to take on the Warhorses in their final matchup of the season.

D'Hanis Rook Tourney to begin Sunday

Sunday marks the first round of competition in the D'Hanis Rook Tournament, held annually in D'Hanis Parish Hall.

Preparations are in progress for what could be the biggest turnout in the Tournament's three years. Last year, sixty couples spent the two Sundays locked in "hand to hand" combat.

Contestants are asked to be at the Hall by 1:30 p.m. Sunday, to draw for pairings and table numbers. First round play will begin promptly at 2 p.m.

Registration will be held through Saturday at Medina Savings in Hondo, as well as the Country Mart and Gallo Lumber Company in D'Hanis. Fee for early registration is $5 per couple. The only restriction is that entrants must be beyond high school age to enter. No high school students will be allowed to compete.

For those who wait until the final registration at the Hall Sunday between 12:30-1:30 p.m., registration will cost $6 per couple.

The first day's competition will determine Upper and Lower flights for the final round on Sunday February 10.

After the first five games Sunday, entrants will be divided into the two groups on the basis of their first day's record. Those who win three or more games will automatically be placed in the Upper Flight.

Upper Flight teams will compete for a prize of $15 ($30 per couple) in the final round. Lower Flight teams will compete for a prize of $20 ($10 per team member) on Feb. 10.

On both Sundays, a prize of $5 will be awarded to the first couple who bids and scores 100 points.

Also on both Sundays, refreshments will be available throughout the afternoon. Concessions will include food, soft drinks, and ice.

Phase 2--Volleyball

By Rhonda Graff

The second big change for 1974 at Hondo High will be the girls' volleyball teams coached by Mrs. George Riddell.

The 20 girls chosen will be divided into two teams. These teams will consist of six players and 4 subs per team.

The teams' first game will be against Pearlsall on February 14. They will be playing other games with Southwest, Medina Valley, and Devine before the District meet.

The District meet will be held the 28 and 29 of March in Pearlsall.

Coaches of the teams in our district-Carrizo Springs, Medina Valley, Cotulla, Devine, Hondo, and Pearlsall--will determine the set-up to be used at the meet.

Three set-up choices for the meet are the Round Robin, the double elimination, and the single elimination.

In the Round Robin each team will play one game with every team in the district.

In double elimination a team is disqualified after losing 2 games.

In single elimination a team is through after losing one game.

Girls will actually be playing power volleyball which is the same type of volleyball used in the Olympics. The main difference in this game deals with the use of the hands and arms.

There can be no underhand, open hand scoop.

Mrs. Riddell also said that she plans to have a Jr. High team composed of 12 girls.

The schedule for the teams will be published at a later date.
